Spiritual Blessing of Love

Sunrise Alms Giving "Tak Bat" & Spiritual Blessing at the Temple THB 1,100 per person - 'just for 2' 06.30-08.00

For centuries monks and novices have left their temples everyday and walked through the town accepting alms from the local townsfolk; a way for people to gain merit and for the monastic community to maintain contact with their community. Locals place rice and other foods into their alms bowls before the monks return to their temples with the collected food for breakfast.

At one of our favourite local pagodas and after the 'tak bat' and a small visit of the town and market including the tsunami boats, we continue with your next rewarding way to connect with the Buddhist ethos of Thailand - a spiritual blessing and offering to the temple.

Offering a small basket of items to the monks is a sign of respect, and the monk returns his thanks with a blessing. This consists of a monk gently pouring water over you to cleanse your spirit whilst chanting ancient Pali-Sanskrit 'mantras'. You will feel lighter and remarkably calm by this simple but spiritual event.

The walking meditation occurs at first light and we invite you to join us for this contemplative and spiritual experience, a special way to perhaps start your new marriage or end your stay at The Sarojin.
